Items, General and Personal, Of Interest to G. P. O. Workers

V. C. Meyerhoffer, of Columbia Typographical Union, No. 101, celebrated his seventy-fifth birthday on the 14th instant. and many friends congratulated him. expressing the hope that he might live to enjoy many more. Mr. Meyerhoffer went into the printing business in 1848, and joined the printers' union, in To-Pressman William A. Fogarty, who had three ribs broken by a fall from his press a couple of weeks ago, is able to be out once more.

E. L. Winne and Arthur Picotte, pressmen from the Treasury branch, were added to the force in the main pressroom yesterday morning.

Clint O. Price, who has been in charge of the proofroom of the Treasury branch for a number of years, resumed operations in the job proofroom yesterday morning and was given a deserved wel-

Harry Lazelle, the eighty-year-old member of the paper warehouse force, was bidding his many friends good-by yesterday, prior to starting on thirty days' leave of absence, which he will spend at Chesapeake Beach.

Harry J. Bradford, of the main press room, who has been at Sibley Hospital for the past five weeks, died at 4 o'clock yesterday morning. A week ago he was so much improved as to be able to sit up, and it was thought he could leave the hospital in a few days. His remains will be taken to Akron, Ohio, his forhome, for interment.

terday in having restored to him a valuable jewel of decoration of chivalry, which was presented to him by the members of Canton Washington, I. O. O. F., at San Francisco, in 1897, and stolen on the train while en route home. The jewel was returned by H. H. Scott, proprietor of a hotel in Abingdon, Va.

Edward S. Moores, purchasing agent for the Government Printing Office, has been designated by Public Printer Don-

was unanimously adopted:

Whereas certain charges or statements reflecting upon the honesty, integrity, and character of William M. Garrett, during his incumbency as secretary of Columbia Typographical Union, No. 101, have been made at the White House: and

"Whereas said charges or statements have militated against his employment and injured his good standing in the community; therefore be it

"Resolved, That Columbia Typographical Union, No. 101, in regular meeting assembled, hereby repudiates such charges or statements with all the force at its command and further testifies to his successful and businesslike admin istration as an honored officer of this union for a period of seven years; be it

'Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the President of the United States, by the secretary. under the seal of the union, and spread upon the minutes.'

/ Most people kick at a reduction in pay, but one member of the proofroom chapel has been reduced from reader to copyholder at his own request.

Two new Mergenthaler machines, with all the latest devices for doing that class of work, have been erected in the jol

Proofreaders J. W. Clark, Frank M Hatley, Charles W. Irey, Thomas C. Jones, C. E. La Vigne, H. J. McClurg, and M. B. Richmond have been transferred to the monotype section as com-

Copyholder W. R. Burgess has been sent to the monotype section as a com-

Pressman George A. Forden has been Reviser Charles E. Smalley has been absent from duty several days owing to the

The Missouri Valley will be visited by three of the printing trades this summer, the convention of the I. T. U. being held at St. Joe, the Pressmen's at Omaha, and the Electrotypers and Stereotypers'

Big Mike Kane, the paymaster's guard, shadow of his former robust self.

Timekeeper George Sparks, of the proofroom, has been transferred to the docu- In 1880 he started West, landing in Denment room as a compositor. In his for- ver, whence he went to Colorado mer position he proved himself a cour- Springs in 1884, where he worked for sev

A number of the ladies on the sixth and Mrs. T. Frank Hall writes to a member of the union expressing her gratitude for offers of assistance by several of Mr. Hall's friends, which she respectfully declines, and says his condition is almost hopeless.

J. M. Williamson, for years foreman for Darby, which position he vacated by reason of a strike, and then for a long time in charge of Byron Adams' compos-ing room, which he vacated by reason of the eight-hour strike, has taken charge at

! Jeptha M. Isreal, reader in the job proofroom, who has been absent from the office for a long time by reason of in juries caused by a fall from a bicycle returned to work during the week, but is still compelled to use crutches Lewis B. Clark, reader in the job proofroom, is absent from duty, the result of injury during a bowling contest, in which sport he is an expert. W. H. Drayton, of the Interstate Commerce Commission, a former employe of the main office, was a visitor to the docu ment section on Wednesday for the pur pose of casting his ballot. Edgar J. Dwight, after a lengthly sojourn up at the war section, has been transferred back to the document sec-

FRANK A. KIDD, Frank A. Kidd, for the second time elected president of Columbia Typographical Union, No. 101, came to Washington about ten years ago from Chicago, where he was active in the labor field and was organizer for Typograph-Capt, Dan Chisholm, reviser in the ical Union No. 16 for two terms. He pressroom, received a great surprise yes- was in charge of the Chicago post-office printing office, buyer for Rand, Mc-Nally & Co., and clerk to the jury com-mission. Mr. Kldd is married, and has a son now in Manila, Philippine Islands

> Howard Sherman, head reader in the proofroom, is now designated referee.

J. Nat Stead has been transferred from the proofroom to the monotype section

Mary Sabine Ashby, Mary A. Connolly, Nellie Theaker, Katharine H. Spencer, nelly to serve on the purchasing board Brook A. Yowell, and Irma D. Palmer, for the government departments, as con-templated in a recent executive order of to the monotype and document sections.

Silas Wegg, the chewing gum poet, has At the meeting of Columbia Typo-graphical Union Sunday, the following type section, but Tom Elliott denies the allegation that he aspires to the honor,

Frank Pine, one of the handy all ound men who fill any position well, has been added to Al. Bowen's force in the document section

LOUIS R. TAYLOR,

Union's delegation to the St. Joe convention of the I. T. U., was born, educated, and learned the printing business in the the recipient of a visit from the stork at State of Illinois, and there also imbibed his residence, and a baby girl has been the rudiments of the art of politics, which landed him an easy winner in the late race. That he is a popular man the vote of the proofroom chapel showed, as he got 115 votes out of 133 cast by the people who should know him best. While in no sense an orator, he expresses himself gates have been sent by Columbia Union a clear head for intelligent work in the I. T. U. than Louis R. Taylor.

Frederick N. Whitehead, who re is once more on duty, though but a ceived the second highest vote for delegate, joined Chicago Typographical Union No. 16, in 1874, when twenty-one years old. teous, obliging gentleman, and gained the eral years, being a charter member of respect and good will of every member that union. In 1890 he went back to Chicago, but later left for the South, reaching Galveston, Tex., in 1891; was elected delegate to Philadelphia in 1892, and or seventh floors have made a great pet of ganized the old Third district at that con-a pigeon which comes daily to be fed, and vention. He landed in Washington on so tame that it will eat out of the February 1, 1900, and has since been em ployed in the Government Printing Office He is one of the most useful and popular members of Columbia Union, and also of Washington Lodge of Elks.

FRED N. WHITEHEAD, G. P. O. delegate I. T. U.

F. M. Hatley, F. H. Jones, C. E. La graving and Printing, and former secre- lowing programme: Vigne, M. F. Leffler, S. F. McDonough, tary of the pressmen's union, has been Mrs. Irma D. Palmer, J. H. Schaffhausen, granted a patent for a bearer for rotary Albert Lindstrom and Dan L. Sansom; prominent committee assignments in the till they are drunk."

Fred. Strickroth, of the pressroom, who went to New York as a member of the bc.g, T. L. Jones, J. R. Purvis, F. Mor degree team of the National Union Club, rison, J. L. Holland, E. A. Lang, C. W. reports a delightful time in the metropo-Bridweil, E. S. Moorhead, J. M. Patter-

turned to the proofroom on Thursday ton, Bermuda Islands. Arrayed in a fighters. suit of white, with a pair of green goggles, Jesse writes he is quite English, vault, has been confined to the house reby owing to an attack of typhoid

Frank Trimble, recently furloughed, resigned and has returned to his home in Texas.

William A. Dodge, head reader in the proofroom, have been reduced to the grade of proofreader, as also have James A. Maynard, Harry Humble, and E. H.

JAMES E. BRIGHT, surer Columbia Typographical Union,

Lieut. George P. Philips, of Company , Second Regiment, District Volunteers, after two days' service under general orders, No. 4, returned to office on Thursday morning. Lieut. Phillips is a mem ber of the document division chapel.

Forrest C. Pendleton, of the forwarding division, was called home to Boston last Saturday on account of the death of his mother. It was but a few months ago that his father died. In his bereaver Mr. Pendleton has the sympathy of his Thomas Gaffney, of the finishing diviion, received the sad news from Philadelphia of his mother's death last Monday.

The G. P. O. baseball team put a crimp in the pennant aspirations of the Brookland team by beating them last Tuesday evening by a score of 9 to 2

James L. Feeney is seriously ill at his nome with sciatic rheumatism.

Councilman Stephen J. Kelly, of the bindery, who played a conspicuous part Mrs. George M. Bisbee, of Butte, Mont. visiting her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Holby. Mr. Bisbee is chief clerk of the O., S. & L. Ry., with headquarters at Butte.

Henry Hoiby's dog collided with an automobile one evening last week. No inury to dog or machine went with his parents to Memphis, Tenn., where he learned the printing trade. From Memphis Typographical Union, No. 11. he received his first card, in 1890. He worked in St. Louis, Chicago, Cincinnati, and other large cities, and in 1893 came to the Government Printing Office. He has worked in some of the most important divisions of the G. P. O., including the night bill force, old second division, given by Henry A. Willard to the Oldest cations, fifth division, first division, and Record. In the last-named di- joyed every minute of it. vision he is an employe at this writing. being timekeeper and handy man on the Congressional Record. Mr. Schinnerer has always taken a deep and intelligent in an attack of neuralgia, necessitating the always taken a deep and intelligent interest in the affairs of Columbia Union. He has served on the relief committee, the finance committee, and the executive committee, and in each of these assignents he has set an O. K. proof. He is forceful, without being fussy; capable. without any flashlight accessories, and therefore his friends think he will make a successful delegate.

WILLIAM S. SCHINNERER. G. P. O. delegate I. T. U.

William C. Deane, of the Bureau of En- sixth floor, and will consist of the fol-

Instrumental medley (Weber), cornets, Mrs. Irma D. Palmer, J. H. Schaffhausen, M. N. Serrano, C. H. Roeder, George C. Epark, Miss Katherine K. Spencer, Chark, Miss Katherine K. Spencer, Chark, Spe

O Country," (Eichberg); Memorial address, Hon. Frank M. Nye, of Minnesota; "G. A. R. Memorial Song" (Verner).

The following ladies and gentlemen compose the chorus:

Miss Kate M. Ellis, Miss N. Ruckdaeschel, Miss L. Ransdell, Miss M. Walsh, Miss M. F. Koester, Mrs. C. B. ollinger, Miss K. Sweeney, Miss E. C. Morell, Miss M. Geisenderfer, Miss F. L. Miller, Miss H. Bunch, Mrs. J. L. Th ton, Miss F. S. Harries, Miss E. E. Johnston, Mrs. E. E. Larson, Miss E. Donne Ed. Grimes, who was transferred to the Treasury branch a few weeks ago. re-

a extinguishing a blaze in a neighbor's

Charles E. Malpas, chief of the library bindery, has become a thorough country gentleman, driving daily between Wash-William Higgins, assistant keeper of the ington and his country place at Marl-

> Fred L. Arends, who of late has been a familiar figure in every section of the indery, is now located in the forwarding turned to the bindery. Pressman John J. Kelly, of the mon

he marriage will be duly reported,

Web Pressman Ray Proudley, of the Congressional Record force, is enjoying fifteen days' leave of absence. Charles Gulles, of the web press section, has been transferred to night duty.

E. E. Emerson, clerk in the pressroom has been transferred to the purchasing

Miss Eleanor C. Burgess, a popular feeder in the pressroom, has resigned, and the particulars of the wedding will appear

Miss Elia M. Pruitt has been transferred from the pressroom to the office of the superintendent of work.

Things are getting pretty strict when big, handsome fellow who ornaments a desk position can't glance over the paper or take forty winks on government time without a call down.

William Tanner says adversity has its rewards, as he was unaware of the great number of his true friends until misforune crossed his path

JOSEPH C. WHYTE.

Washingtonian, having been born here thirty-seven years ago. The foundation or deed; yet he has sent against me, I savages in the daytime retire into the where he was graduated as a journeyman, later working in the office of Judd & Detoffice of chairman-a position of much was informed of the motives of the sinresponsibility in such an office. He joined the union about 1891, and has seen considerable service as one of its active fluxion had fallen on his eyes, the effect workers, having served as treasurer of of fatigue or incessant weeping; and he one of Columbia Union's successful fairs, wished to solace the melancholy hours represented the organization in the Cen-tral Labor Union, served on its member-his own misfortunes. The humanity of ship committee, and given time to many Pharas was moved; he sent the three exspecial assignments of the body. For traordinary gifts. the past five years he has served as one of the three elective trustees of the Milo K. Huntsberry, a member of the musician. He added even a twelfth nonotype section chapel, died at his res- string to the harp, for which he was seidence in this city yesterday morning. verely punished by the sage Spartans, excess. He had but recently returned to the city who concluded that luxury of sound from a trip to Florida and North Caro- would effeminate the people. lina, whither he was advised to go in search of relief from a chronic catarrhal trouble with which he has been afflicted hird highest vote for delegate, was born for years. "Mike," as he was familiarly at Prescott, Ark., May 23, 1873, and in 1880 known, was a mild-mannered, modest little gentleman, whose aim was to make life for everybody as pleasant as possible; with a big heart and an open hand. He was a native of Mount Vernon, Ohio, but had resided in Washington about twenty years, most of that time being an employe of the G. P. O.

George A. R. McNeir, first president of Columbia Union, attended the reception Inhabitants' Association, and says he en-

Frank Meredith, one of the most popuuse of smoked glasses.

I. Walter Sharp has been elected chairman of the night proofroom, succeeding a man is hardly to be known by his most Harry Murray, transferred to the monotype section

J. E. Fechtig, one of the best-known ly assaulted by some parties unknown, that it leaves no possibility of speaking." The Decoration Day concert by the while on his way home late one night Government Printing Office chorus will last week, just opposite Sibley Hospital. be given on Saturday next, at 12:10 p. m., in the main hall and stairway of the sixth Sear and will consist of the sixth Search his assailants were scared off before accomplishing their object.

Combinations and Coincidences To Establish Mental Landmarks

ferred to for the year of the gunpowder through this year of grace and centennials, completes his thesis, and becomes conscious of what is going on around him, he may perchance add one more really made no bad selection when he empire of the west, the Holy Roman em-Letters from Jesse Clark state that he bouse last Sunday at Hyattsville, is very litem to his chronological repertoire—say, is a good date, but he gidn't know how to the date of the birth of Abraham Lin- is a good date, but he gidn't know how to the date of the birth of Abraham Lin- is a good date, but he gidn't know how to the date of the birth of Abraham Lin- is a good date, but he gidn't know how to the control of the birth of Abraham Lin- is a good date, but he gidn't know how to the control of the birth of Abraham Lin- is a good date, but he gidn't know how to the control of the birth of Abraham Lin- is a good date, but he gidn't know how to the control of the birth of Abraham Lin- is a good date, but he gidn't know how to the control of the birth of Abraham Lin- is a good date, but he gidn't know how to the control of the birth of Abraham Lin- is a good date, but he gidn't know how to the control of the birth of Abraham Lin- is a good date, but he gidn't know how to the control of the birth of Abraham Lin- is a good date, but he gidn't know how to the control of the birth of Abraham Lin- is a good date, but he gidn't know how to the control of the birth of Abraham Lin- is a good date, but he gidn't know how to the control of the birth of Abraham Lin- is a good date, but he gidn't know how to the control of the birth of Abraham Lin- is a good date, but he gidn't know how to the control of the birth of Abraham Lin- is a good date, but he gidn't know how to the control of the birth of Abraham Lin- is a good date, but he gidn't know how to the control of the birth of Abraham Lin- is a good date, but he gidn't know how to the control of the birth of Abraham Lin- is a good date, but he gidn't know how to the control of the birth of Abraham Lin- is a good date, but he gidn't know how to the control of the birth of Abraham Lin- is a good date, but he gidn't know how to the control of the birth of Abraham Lin- is a good date, but he gidn't know how to the control of the birth of Abraham Lin- is a good date, but he so much as 1809—the year which, on one birth of Margaret of Navarre, sister of day gave us Lincoln and Darwin, and Francis I of France, and reputed author which enriched the annals of literature of the "Heptameron;" the death of Lo-George Whitford, who has been on de-Henry W. Weber, head reviser, and the Interior Department, has re-stone the death of Hadyn, and the birth Justly, therefore, has it been generally of Mendelssohn; of the birth of Giad-stone the death of Hadyn, and the birth of Giad-adapted as the boundary between the mestone, the statesman, and the death of dieval and modern periods, though some live. In 160 Sir John Moore, the hero of Corunna, historians prefer to regard 1453 as the line danc Bruno Such folk may even go a step further, of demarcation-an epochal date, standing type section, has lost another feeder, and noting that 1809 was itself the centennial not only for the capture of Constantinople of the birth of Dr. Johnson, and the bi-Phil Nachman, the hustling little chairHudson in these parts; also of the birth land and France. nan of the keyboard room, made a splen- of Sir John Suckling, poet and inventor A certain lugubrious capaciousness must man of the keyboard room, made a splendid race for delegate, and has every reason to feel confident of winning out should be enter the contest again.

A certain iuguorious capaciousness must be granted to 1740, when death stalked
among the potentates of Europe, mowing down, for good or evil, the Emperor Karl

A certain iuguorious capaciousness must
be granted to 1740, when death stalked
in the same year, Frederick of Hohenand father-in-law of James II.

By RUDOLPH DE ZAPP.

the State Department as American repre- he was concerned.

The history which music played in the of interest:

consider inferior to our own in the amen- do nothing.

in the pages of history. Geilmer, the tiphon.

The Spartans were opposed to even luxury in sound. Timotheus the Milesian was a celebrated Dithyrambic poet and

The Puritans were of a somewhat similar opinion. They held that "sweet music at first delighteth the ears, but afterward corrupteth and depraveth the

"What is that whistling noise I hear

"Good" said the King. "That shall be Alcibiades looked upon music as undig-nified. In the course of his education

he willingly took the lessons of his masters, but refused learning to play upon the flute, which he looked upon as a

"The use of the plectrum upon the flute. Besides, the lyre does not hinder the performer from speaking or accompanying it with a song, whereas the flute I intimate friends when he plays upon the a welcome reception.

mean art and unbecoming a gentleman.

disembarking on the Danish shore.

overhead?" asked the King, as he was Nelson, in the town of Bristol, he and

Some of the finest lyrics were composed prayer for the first martyr."

cil of state, Napoleon said:

thundering at its gates.

my music henceforth."

reports a delightful time in the metrops.

Son, George B. Chattaway, D. N. Kiapp, lis, but says there is great need of organization work for that order there, the ganization work for that order there, the total membership in that jurisdiction not Ruhl, C. F. Sullivan, J. W. Crowell, F. Ruhl, C. F. Sullivan, J. W. Crowell, F. Pena G. Evans, H. Redfield, J. A. tel-Hankin, in the New York Post.

Son, George B. Chattaway, D. N. Kiapp, plot, replied with some acrimony that the consideration here of one or two such date of Columbus' first voyage was the years may not be without interest, and it impresses the memory either by the arrangement of its digits or by some curvance of adding to his chronological stock in rious coincidence for which it stands, of adding to his chronological stock in either per se or through its relation to If that same "superior person" lives trade without putting an undue strain on either per se or through its relation to an already overburdened memory.

1492 and 1453.

Our friend of the thesis and one date There are, however, many less superior just as do the years 1966, 1620, and 1776 iam the Red-fell, pierced by an arrow, persons, who, in an age when many to the ordinary schoolboy. Used propin the New Forest—for his sins, or for those of his father, who laid out the calls on the memory compel a certain besides recalling Christopher's famous economy in mental storage room, will trip, it stands for the capture of Granada, be thankful for a year that stands for the expulsion of the Jews from Spain, the with the names of Tennyson, Poe, Fitz- renzo the Magnificent, and the accession Gerald, and Oliver Wendell Holmes; the of Alexander VI-of fragrant memory.

Granting, therefore, the inherent right VI of Pragmatic Sanction fame, the Czar-

INFLUENCE OF MUSIC

Ancients and Moderns Carried Away by Melody-Some Illustrations from History.

Of music as a political power history tenacious memory, a ready and fluent

A "superior person"—he was a candi-tot a person, superior or otherwise, to be that for the Ph. D., specializing in political science as applied to American multiplication of the second class—being resulting and special science as applied to the second class—being resulting and special science as applied to the second class—being resulting and special science than one event. It may even last event must have been an unsuperson relief to his son and superson relie suggest other dates and events, and so relief to his son and successor, Frederick > other dates of similar notation. To the first of these classes belong the century years. In 800, on Christmas Day, the coronation of Charlemagne revived the use it. To him it stood for one event, 1896. In 1100 William II of England-Willpleasance at the expense of the poor Hampshire folk. queror's sons, Richard, was killed in the VIII celebrated the first Papal jubilee in 1300, on which occasion Dante was present. This was the year of Dante's election to the office of prior, the origin of all his subsequent troubles. Chaucer died in 1400; Benvenuto Cellini was born in 1500. In 1600 Clement VIII burned Gior-

Ending in Fifteen.

Of the years ending in 15, 1215 stands for the signing of Magna Charta; 1415 for the battle of Agincourt and the burning of John Huss-he was under safe conduct chased the Mark of Brandenburg for 600,000 gulden; a real bargain, but times were hard and the imperial tradesmen exigent, especially his majesty's shoemaker, if we are to believe a not untrustworthy chronicier. As for the Hohenzollerns, they were to travel far, and to strike at least one other profitable bar-gain with an imperial master, when, in 1701, during the war of the Spanish succession, Frederick bought the kingship of Prussia from the Emperor Leopold-Carlyle's "little man in red stockings"-the consideration being a contingent of 8,000 men. Yet 170 years, and a Hohenzollern was to strike another bargain-this time from the other side of the counter. The band played "The Star Spangled An international congress of music is Banner," which was the first time they rebellion of the Old Pretender and the return to our muttons, 1715 marks the being held in Vienna, and this country's had heard the air in the East. All the death of Louis XIV; in 1815 was fought interests in the matter will be taken other bands they had encountered labored the battle of Waterloo, and—si parva licet interests in the matter will be taken of the Congress, who has been appointed by care of the Library of Congress, who has been appointed by care of the Library of Congress, who has been appointed by congress, who has been appointed by congress, who has been appointed by the congress of the Library of Congress, who has been appointed by the congress of the congress

sentative. Mr. Sonneck left for Austria

Of art in music, the following dialogue dates, 55 B,C. stands for Caesar's first between Goldsmith and Johnson will be landing in Britain; he died in 44. 888 The history which music played in the of interest:

Goldsmith—The greatest musical perhistory of the world is as varied as it is interesting, and a few remarks on din't am told does not set above.

The history which music played in the of interest:

Goldsmith—The greatest musical performers have but small emoluments. Glarformers have but small emoluments. G is interesting, and a few remarks on dini, I am told, does not get above $700 a the subject will prove of interest at this year. Johnson-That is indeed but little for a and the mother of another. Yet another Music was the especial art of the Elizabethan days. In every household there was the love of music, and in many in think in which the power of art is recommended to the many endeavor to do. There is nothing. I think in which the power of art is recommended to the mother of another. Yet another many endeavor to do. There is nothing. I think in which the power of art is recommended to the mother of another. Yet another many endeavor to do. There is nothing. I think in which the power of art is recommended to the mother of another. Yet another many endeavor to do. There is nothing. I think in which the power of art is recommended to the mother of another. Yet another many endeavor to do. There is nothing. I think in which the power of art is recommended to the mother of another. Yet another many endeavor to do. families it was cultivated as an essential part of education. The plain tune of the church did not unfit the people for the madrigals of the fireside—exquistrate which tell how much of the church as an essential part of education. The plain tune of the church did not unfit the people for the madrigals of the fireside—exquistrate which tell how much of the church as in playing on the fiddle. In all other things we can do something at first. Any man will forge a bar of iron if you give him a hammer; not so well as a smith, but tolerably. A line of the church did not unfit the people for the madrigals of the fireside—exquistrate which tell how much of the church did not unfit the people for the madrigals of the fireside—exquistrate which tell how much of the church did not unfit the people for the ite compositions, which tell how much of the highest enjoyments of refined taste, belong to an age which we are apt to do nothing.

Alphonso "the wise," of Castile, indited his from Toledo—while in Germany chaos following sentiments. Quickwitted, of reigned.

speaker, gay and genial in address, an Boccaccio was born in 1313-a date with lished a song ridiculing King James II artist, a musician, Dunstan was at the and Tyrconnell, the lord deputy. "The same time an indefatigable worker at an ominous ring to it; but he seems to whole army," says Burnet, "and at last people of both city and country were singing it perpetually." Wharton afterward boasted that he had rhymed James of the lowed by a train of pupils, busy with literature, writing, harping, painting, and designing. One morning a lady suprepose out of his dominions. He had produced designing. One morning a lady summons a song like many other songs, of won-him to her house to design a robe which drous popularity, with little intrinsic she is embroidering, and as he bends with troublous times of Guelph and Ghibbeline has been ascribed to poison admin-It was whistled and sung in every her maidens over their toil his harp, hung upon the walls, sounds without istered, if we are to believe the grim mortal touch tones which the excited story, in the sacramental wine. In 1414 Music as a necessity is also mentioned ears around frame into a joyous an- assembled the council of Constance, for the ending of the great schism, summon-King of the Vandals, in Africa, sought refuge from the Romans on an inaccessile mountain in Numidia. From the fondness of saviges for music, He observed from his fleet on his voyage of suffered. Pharas, one of the Roman gensulfered. Pharas, one of the Roman gensulfered. Pharas, one of the Roman gensulfered. Pharas, one of the Roman gensulfered him by letter to accept the there was nothing to be seen upon the carthaginian, discovered the fivel pontiffs extant at the time. A self-made man was John, who began life as a pirate. However, he set a good example by abdicating, which the other two controls of the three refuge from the Romans on an inaccessive formulation in Numidia. erals, urged him by letter to accept the there was nothing to be seen upon the following under pressure, Martin V as-Joseph C. Whyte, who was elected last delenency of the emperor. "I am not insensible," replied the King of the Vancontingent of Columbia Typographical Union at the St. Joseph convention of the Union at the St. Joseph convention of the slave of an unjust enemy, as the seem upon the clemency of the emperor. "I am not insensible," replied the King of the Vancontingent of Columbia Typographical dals, "how kind and rational is your advice. But I cannot persuade myself to become the slave of an unjust enemy, as the seem upon the clemency of the emperor. "I am not insensible," replied the King of the Vanconting to be seen upon the clemency of the emperor. "I am not insensible," replied the King of the Vanconting to be seen upon the clemency of the emperor. "I am not insensible," replied the King of the Vanconting to be seen upon the clemency of the emperor. "I am not insensible," replied the King of the Vanconting to be seen upon the clemency of the emperor. "I am not insensible," replied the King of the Vanconting to be seen upon the clemency of the emperor. "I am not insensible," replied the King of the Vanconting to the seen upon the clemency of the emperor. "I am not insensible," replied the King of the Vanconting to the total was nothing to be seen upon the clemency of the emperor. "I am not insensible," replied the King of the Vanconting to the vanconting to the seen upon the clemency of the emperor. "I am not insensible," replied the King of the Vanconting to the vanconting to the clemency of the emperor. "I am not insensible," replied the King of the Vanconting to the Union at the St. Joseph convention of the become the slave of an unjust enemy, become the slave of the become the sla Will Shakespeare died in 1616.

To the second class of suggestive dates of his printing knowledge was laid in the know not from whence, a certain Belisa-woods to avoid the heat of the sun; that they light great fires in the night to disonly Englishman who has worn the tiara later working in the office of Judd & Detweller. He is now employed on the Evening Star, with which establishment he has been connected for a number of years, and by the chapel of which he was elected five consecutive terms to the office of chairman—a position of much sponge, and a loaf of the motives of the motives of the motives of the singular reverse of fortune? I can write no more; my while Grant was unappreciative of mustic, and that they have exteremely fond of music and dancture. While Grant was unappreciative of mustic, and that they will be a strenuous pope, the first to put Rome under an interdict. He forced for a number of you, my dear Pharas—send me a lyre, a sponge, and a loaf of bread."

While Grant was unappreciative of mustic, and that they will be a suppreciative of mustic and dancture. The latter a strenuous pope, the first to put Rome under an interdict. He forced for the size of fortune? I can write no more; my Mile Grant was unappreciative of mustic, while Grant was unappreciative of mustic, while Grant was unappreciative of mustic, and that they will be a strenuous pope, the first to put Rome under an interdict. He forced for a number of produce the first to put Rome under an interdict. He forced for a number of produce the first to put Rome under an interdict. He forced for a number of produce the first to put Rome under an interdict. He forced for a number of produce the first to put Rome under an interdict. He forced for a number of produce the first to put Rome under an interdict. He forced for a number of produce the first to put Rome under an interdict. He forced for a number of produce the first to put Rome under an interdict. He forced for a number of produce the first to put Rome under an interdict. He forced for a number of produce the first to put Rome under an interdict. He forced for a number of produce the first to put Rome under an interdict. He forced for a number of produce the first to put Rome under an interdict the forced for a number of produce the first to put Rome u heir to a good estate. He had a clock in ful value par le temps qui court. King his bedroom, and his rule in summer John, of England, died in 1216, as also was to get up as soon as he could see did his arch enemy, Innocent III. A the hands, and in winter he rose uni-formally at 5. Including the time passed great Pope was Innocent, and there be those who say that John was not so in music and reading, he usually spent black as he is painted, but doth. In 1564 fourteen hours of every day at these Shakespeare was born and John Calvin black as he is painted; but doubtless the studies, three of which, he tells us, were died. Shakespeare was born and John Calvin ometimes spent in practicing on the vio-

James II Deposed in 1688.

lin. There has seldom been a young man of fortune who lived more purely Bent on re-establishing Catholicism in than he. He neither practiced the vices England, James II was deposed in 1658, nor indulged the passions of his class in just a hundred years after the defeat of the Virginia of that day. He never quar-the Spanish Armada, which, perhaps as reled; he never gambled. His mouth was innocent of tobacco. He never drank to much as anything else, made England Protestant; yet a hundred years later, in 1788, died Charles Edward, the Young Pre-Luther, when he had plagued himself tender, on January 30, the anniversary of all day long with his doctrinal distinct the execution of his great-grandfather, tions, in the evening he took his flute Charles I. Alexander I of Russia, who, and gazed at the stars, dissolved in melwith the assistance of Mme. de Krudener ody and devotion. He could be as soft -an affinity of those early, inefficient as a tender maiden. Sometimes he was ward corrupteth and deprayed the ward of the ward mind." Music in strife is illustrated by mind." Music in strife is illustrated by mild as the storm that uproots the oak, and then again he was gentle as the context the port of Copenhagen and an army the port of Copenhagen and army the port of Copenhagen and an army the port of Copenhagen and an army the port of Copenhagen and army the port of Copenhagen and army the port of Copenhagen and army the port of Copenhagen army the port of Copenhagen army the port of Copenhagen and army the port of Copenhagen army the port of Copenhagen army the port of Copenhagen and army the port of Copenhagen army the port of Co days-elaborated the Holy Alliance died When the mob was pulling down the house of John Wesley's lay preacher, John Such are a few examples of the coincidences of chronology. Similar sets may be collected along innumerable different isembarking on the Danish shore.

'It is the musket balls, sire," said an hymns, and the mob field before them. primarily to the man of one date, who during the tumults so frequently experienced. He often recited, and someand, with deference, to the man of a times sung them among the raging dozen enough to furnish forth a quite crowds. Four of them were written to be sung "in a tumult," and one was "a prayer for the first martyr."

unexpected number of landmarks on the misty highways and byways of history.

It remains to make a confession. The

Of Homer, history says that he was writer-by way of trying it on the dogprobably a wandering minstrel, who submitted his screed to the "superior perearned his subsistence by strolling from son" aforesaid, who read it under protest, "has nothing in it one city to another, and frequenting publand then delivered himself to the effect that disorders the features or form, but lic festivals and the tables of the great, that whereas by the exertion of ingenuwhere his verses and music procured num ity, which for his part he was compelled to regard as misplaced, the value of a Bourierne says of the impression the date might be infinitesimally increased, sound of church bells made on Napoleon the wise man would rather strive to for-One day when the matter of religion get it-faire table rase-in favor of other members of Columbia Union, was brutal- so engages the mouth and the breath was under earnest discussion in the counthings better worth remembering; that he "Last even- himself would long since have succeeded In Italy, writes Steele, a cobbler may be ing I was walking alone in the woods. in banfshing the memory of Columbus heard working to an opera tune, and amid the solitude of nature. The tones meanderings were it not for a shocking natas." But, "on the contrary, our hon-est countrymen have so little inclination feel thus, what must be the influence of variant, and not quite original at that, Harvey Ellis and Frank Clarkson have to music that they seldom begin to sing such impressions upon the popular mind? and, finally, that one Herr Ploetz had Let your philosophers auswer that if they written an "Epitome" which, in case one Of Gen. Grant it was said that he did have a religion for the people." Bour-space on the bookshelf, is provided with